

Original Thought

ONE OF THE MOST STRIKING ATTRIBUTES of Absolute Tiles is the sheer creativity of their people. They manage their breathtaking array of tiles and sanitary ware like so many colours on a palette – just waiting to be blended and formed to release true design potential.

A visit to the showroom is like opening up a cache of ideas that ultimately leads to a redefining of your own personal taste. The style consultants are trained to perfection and are contagiously passionate about their craft. If you consider yourself visually challenged however, the clever IT crew have installed a computer system to help design your new salle de bain. The perfect opportunity to reinvent your home and yourself...with a little help from the consummate professionals.

Specialising in top class ranges for bathrooms and kitchens, their tiles and sanitary ware are of the finest on the planet. They tend to make a big deal out of this. Especially since the procurement crew travel the world extensively, ferreting out the most beautiful, stylish, innovate contemporary looks.

Hand-coloured porcelain and the latest in exquisitely crafted basin mixers are just the tip of the iceberg. Their combinations of glass tiles and natural stone are so refreshing they are positively stimulating. So if you're tired of run-of-the-mill mass produced items and want something a little less ordinary, a little more original, talk to the designers at Absolute Tiles. They like to think.
